

JOIN US FOR THE HEART RHYTHM 2025 SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM

The Future of Cardiac Pacing: Unlocking the Potential of AtrioVentricular Interval Modulation (AVIM) Therapy

Complimentary Breakfast Program

Friday, April 25, 2025 at 6:45 – 8:00 AM PT

Hilton San Diego Bayfront Hotel, Indigo Ballroom CG

1 Park Blvd, San Diego, CA 92101

Please join us for an in-depth discussion on AVIM therapy and its role in the future of cardiac pacing. Expert faculty will cover the AVIM therapy mechanism of action, unmet patient needs the therapy can address, and randomized clinical results from prior studies demonstrating impact on hypertension and diastolic dysfunction. The symposium will also discuss the on-going BACKBEAT global pivotal study and beyond. Faculty engagement and audience commentary will be encouraged.
